Examiner's Detailed Office Action

Response to Amendment

1. This Office Action is responsive to communication received on August 18, 2005.
Amendment under 37 CFR § 1.111. Reconsideration and allowance of the present application is respectfully requested by applicant.
2. Applicant's arguments filed August 18, 2005 have been fully considered, however, they are not persuasive.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by

Cook et al. (USPN 5,727,950).

Regarding claim 1, 10 & 11. Cook et al. teaches a method, apparatus & computer program product for establishing a collaborative training session, comprising the steps of:

- (a) receiving information indicative of a goal [see Fig. 1 & Abstract, Examiner interprets a goal to be the end toward which an effort is directed or more appropriately an intention and in this case the intention is learning, C 6, L 57-65];
- (b) prompting a user to enter a response congruent with the goal [see Fig. 2A & C 6, L 37-49 & L 57-65];
- (c) receiving the response to the goal [see Fig. 2A & C 6, L 37-49 L 57-65];
- (d) calculating a level of congruency to achieve the goal by:
 - (d)(i) logic and code segment that determining a first factor corresponding to an overall progress of the user in the collaborative training session [see Abstract];
 - (d)(ii) logic and code segment that determining a second factor corresponding a plurality of specified aspects of the response that includes a correctness measure of the response [see C 27, L 26-43]; and
 - (d)(iii) logic and code segment that combine(s) the first factor and the second factor to obtain the level of congruency [see FIG. 8, C 55, L 37 to C 57, L 08]; and
- (e) providing feedback to the user from a collaborative session reflecting the level of congruency to assist the user in achieving the goal [see C 5, L 46-55].

Regarding claim 2-5, 8, 9, 12-15, 18 & 19. Cook et al. teaches a plurality of servers that are coupled through a computer network [see Abstract, C 1, L 53-64, Fig. 2A & C 6, L 50-56].

Art Unit: 2121

Regarding claim 6, 7, 16 & 17. Cook et al. teaches a method wherein the training session is presented using prerecorded multimedia [see C 2, L 30-52 & C 4, L 34 to C 5, L 3].

Regarding claim 20. The method of claim 1, wherein one of the plurality of specified aspects includes a delivery characteristics associated with the response from the user [see C 5, L 46-55].

Response to Arguments

7. Applicant argues Cook et al. (USPN 5,727,950) fails to teach calculating a level of congruency and fails to teach “determining a first factor corresponding to an overall progress of the user in the collaborative training system,” [see Abstract], “determining a second factor corresponding a plurality of specified aspects of the response that includes a correctness measure of the response,” [see C 27, L 26-43], and “combining the first factor with the second factor to obtain the level of congruency.” It is the examiner’s position that Cook et al. (USPN 5,727,950), satisfies the prima facie bar for anticipation under Section 102.

Examiners Summary

8. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

9. A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
